

Do and Don't's of Motor Vehicle Accidents

Personal Injury Resource

Being involved in a motor vehicle accident can be both scary and uncharted territory for a lot of drivers, pedestrians and cyclists. We've put together a checklist of important tasks that should be done after a motor vehicle accident:

- | DO: | DON'T: |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Get the name and address of all the owners and drivers involved▪ Take down the license plate details of the other owners and drivers▪ Get the names and policy numbers of all the other drivers' insurance▪ Get the names and phone numbers of all witnesses▪ Make notes about how the accident happened▪ Take photos of the scene, your vehicle and your injuries▪ Inform the police, your insurance company, and your employer or school▪ Contact Grosso Hooper Law for a free initial consult to make sure you know your rights | <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Ignore signs of injury or pain, such as dizziness or a stiff neck from whiplash – see your family doctor immediately▪ Admit fault for the accident▪ Avoid talking with your insurance company or signing anything before contacting GH Law |

Timing is important. There are certain actions you must take, and at the right time, in order to get the benefits and compensation you need, such as:

- Inform your accident benefits insurer of accident within 7 days
- Complete the accident benefits application within 30 days
- Inform at-fault driver within 120 days, in writing, of intent to sue
- Sue at-fault driver within two years of accident
